EXPANDING Your Leadership EDGE

"Altering Your Style"

Presented by Joseph Bailey

Einstein defined insanity as doing the same thing over and over again in the same way, expecting different results. This session will focus on leadership styles and how to alter it in an operational and strategic way. Bill O'Bryan, General Manager, of National Frozen Foods will be our special guest. He will talk about some of the lessons he has learned in his long career as a leader in industry and how he has adjusted his leadership through the years. Also, Joseph will present information on leadership styles and adjusting to the people you are leading.
